

Gathering Together

Hebrews 10:19-25

A healthy gathering of God's people is...

1. Centered on the Gospel.

2. Intentional to Love.

3. Committed in Participation.

4. Persevering in Hope.

Living it out...

What is your background when it comes to church? Has your past with the church helped or been an obstacle in shaping your opinion of the church? Why? Before this morning, what did you see as a healthy gathering of God's people? What has changed based on this passage?

Why is it so important to have a healthy view of the Gospel when it comes to gathering with God's people? What are some of the wrong motivations for church participation when it is not based on the Gospel?

How are you doing when it comes to intentionally loving other believers? Do you approach Sunday gatherings with this desire? Why or why not? How have you seen the "stirring up" of the body of Christ in your own life?

Why is commitment and consistency important to a local church? As you think about your church, are there ways you can become more committed in participating in ministry? How would you encourage someone who is struggling to commit to a local gathering of God's people?

How does this passage help you pray for your church? What are some specific things you can ask of God as the church gathers on Sunday mornings?
